

Protection of Minors

Third Party Vendors Checklist

DfY!Dfc[fUa FYei]fYa Ybhg

- 1.

All Programs shall be authorized from all participants' parents or legal guardians to participate in the Program participants to University Services or locations deemed necessary; (ii) authorization for emergency medical treatment in the event the participant's legal guardians or their designees are not available, and disclosure of any allergies or medical conditions that may limit or impact participation in the Program. In the event of an emergency, the administration of medical care to participating participants, necessary measures shall be established in the guidance of the University's policies.

8. Gi dYf j]g]cb D`Ub.

All Programs shall be authorized from all participants' parents or legal guardians to participate in the Program participants to University Services or locations deemed necessary; (ii) authorization for emergency medical treatment in the event the participant's legal guardians or their designees are not available, and disclosure of any allergies or medical conditions that may limit or impact participation in the Program. In the event of an emergency, the administration of medical care to participating participants, necessary measures shall be established in the guidance of the University's policies.

9. HfUbgdcfhUh]c

SUDJ and PE shall establish a procedure for the participation of participants in the Program, including the times and locations, and procedures for the release of information. Information shall be released to any person who is authorized to receive such information.

Facilities may only be used during the specified hours and days. Ensure that the facilities are clean and free of personal property at the end of each use.